

Honor Code Pledge

On my honor as a KAIST student, I hereby pledge to take this exam honestly and not engage in any form of cheating including taking an exam for someone else. I sign this pledge based on the understanding that any breach of this honor code not only questions my ethics and morality, but also threatens the survival of KAIST community and that I may face strong disciplinary action under the school regulations.

Student ID 20170617 2020. 10.22 Name Dongil Cho (Seal or Signature)

KAIST School of Electrical Engineering

Personal Information Collection and Usage Agreement

For the real-time online exam of EE209A/B in the fall semester 2020, we ensure fairness of this exam by keeping you recorded while you take part in exam. Records will be discarded after period for grade correction ends. Please consent to proceed.

☐ Personal Information Collection and Usage Agreement

Personal information to be collected	Purpose for collection of personal information	Period of use and retention of personal information
Name, Student ID, video of taking part in the exam	ensuring fairness and preventing cheating during the administration of distance exams	deleted after the grade correction period

※ You have the rights to refuse to grant your consent to collect and use of personal information pursuant to this guide. However, if you do not agree to the disclosure of your personal information, you may be restricted from taking part in exam.

Personal Information Collection and Usage Agreement ☒ Agree ☐ Disagree

Student ID 20170617 2020. 10.22 Name Dongil Cho (Seal or Signature)

KAIST School of Electrical Engineering